

64.1 Filing Accounts

When filing an account, there must be filed the original of the account plus one copy of the original. The copy must be made after the original is signed in order that all signatures appear on the copy.